

Product development and by-product utilization laboratory

The laboratory has different processing equipment for bakery and extruded products. Different types of extruders such as low cost single screw collet, rotary head and double screw extruders are available. Apart from above the laboratory is also equipped with wet and dry grinding systems, aonla pricking machine, juice maker, flour sifter, pasta making machine etc.