

Cleaning, Grading and Drying Laboratory

The laboratory had different state of the art equipments for cleaning, grading and drying of cereals, pulses and oilseeds. Different type of dryers such as tray dryer, re-circulatory dryer, tunnel dryer, low cost tray dryer with unique properties of uniform air distribution are available for testing the drying characteristics of grains. Primary processing equipments such as destoner, specific gravity separator, indent cylinder separators are available. Primary processing unit for millets are also available.